

THE LORD READING LAW SOCIETY PRESENTS

The impact of tax reform proposals regarding private corporations on professionals

 MEMBERS-ONLY  CLE BREAKFAST - Tuesday, December 5th @ 7:30 am

Rhonda Rudick

Davies

Join us for our first MEMBERS-ONLY CLE breakfast of the season!

You may recall farmers and dentists (not to mention lawyers) rising up in arms against Finance Minister Bill Morneau's tax proposals this past summer – only to be met with a whole new set of proposals in the Fall that would seemingly anger only a more restricted group of Canadians.

What was that all about?

Can you still practise "income sprinkling"? Can you still incorporate your practice? Can you still earn passive income by investing your hard-earned savings? Furthermore, will lawyers be taxed on their unbilled "Work in Process" as Minister Morneau appears to be proposing? What can you do to protect yourself (and your clients) against these impending changes?

Don't fret! Davies tax expert Rhonda Rudick will clarify the tax law concepts behind the headlines. In these changing times, don't miss this opportunity to learn how to structure your business affairs intelligently.

One hour of CLE will be granted by the Barreau du Quebec and this talk is approved for education credit by the Chambre des Notaires.

About our speaker:

Rhonda counsels clients on the tax aspects of mergers and acquisitions, financings, corporate reorganizations and real estate transactions, both Canadian and cross-border. She is a trusted adviser to real estate owners and to private companies. Over her 20-year career, Rhonda has worked extensively with high net-worth individuals, for whom she provides strategic, personalized estate and tax planning.

Rhonda is a co-lecturer in McGill Law School's International Tax Course and Advanced Tax Seminar. She has been recognized by The Best lawyers in Canada for Trusts and Estates Law, and Who's Who Legal Canada.

Davies
1501 McGill College Avenue
26th Floor

Thursday, December 5, 2017
Light breakfast: 7:30 am
Talk: 7:45 am

RSVP breakfast@lordreading.org

Thank you

