

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL · LA GOUVERNEURE GÉNÉRALE

Message from the Governor General on the 75th Anniversary of the Lord Reading Law Society

I am pleased to extend warm greetings to everyone gathered for the 75th Anniversary Gala of the Lord Reading Law Society.

Throughout my career, I have sought to raise awareness of the realities of Inuit, Métis and First Nations communities. I have witnessed and contributed to the evolution of our legal system in terms of diversity, equity and inclusion, issues that have always been my priority. Collectively, we have made great strides in these areas, but there is still much to be done to build on this progress and create a country that truly offers equal opportunities to each and every one of us.

For the last 75 years, members and supporters of the Lord Reading Law Society have been dedicated to human rights, equality for all and legal education. Their social involvement and achievements are a great source of inspiration, and it is my hope that their actions will continue to bring about the changes we need to build the stronger, more prosperous nation to which we aspire.

Congratulations to everyone involved in reaching this significant milestone.

I wish you a wonderful event.

Mary Simon
