

Message from the Member of the National Assembly of Québec for Westmount–Saint-Louis

I am honoured to extend my heartfelt congratulations to the Lord Reading Law Society as you celebrate your 75th anniversary. As the Member of the National Assembly for Westmount–Saint-Louis, I am delighted to witness this significant milestone in your esteemed organization's history.

For three-quarters of a century, the Lord Reading Law Society has been a beacon of legal excellence, scholarship, and community engagement. Your dedication to upholding the principles of justice, promoting legal education, and fostering camaraderie among legal professionals is commendable and serves as an inspiration to all.

The Lord Reading Law Society holds a special place in our community, not only for its contributions to the legal profession but also for its commitment to supporting initiatives that benefit society as a whole. Your efforts in promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion within the legal field are particularly noteworthy.

The upcoming program of events planned to commemorate this milestone promises to be a fitting tribute to the Society's rich heritage and accomplishments. I am proud to support you as you celebrate the past achievements of the Lord Reading Law Society, and your continued commitment to excellence and meaningful contributions to our legal system and community.

As you gather to mark this historic occasion, I extend my best wishes for a successful and memorable anniversary celebration. May the Lord Reading Law Society continue to thrive and serve as a beacon of integrity, professionalism, and service for many more years to come.

Warm regards,

Jennifer Maccarone
